Money Left Him Is Now to Be Disposed of.

Burlington, March 9 .- A case, some what unusual, came to the attention of probate court yesterday in the petition of James M. Rush of Burlington to have himself appointed trustee of the estate of his brother, Edward Rush, in place of John Lavell, deceased. The court made the appointment as request-

Edward Rush has not been heard from for 25 years. He was once of Burlington, and later of Barnard Mills, Pennsylvania. In 1888, or 23 years ago his mother, Bridget Rush, died in this city and her estate was divided among her heirs. Edward's portion was set aside awaiting his reappearance. The money was deposited in the Burlington Savings bank by the trustees, the Mr. Lavell mentioned as now deceased, and has remained there ever since. It now amounts to 8719.65. Edward Rush never came back to claim it, and nobody has 4 any idea of what became of him.
